

Restoration Retreat 2026

Smitten by the Changing Earth: stories of remorse, heartbreak and grace.

October
23-25

Discover the unique community that comes together for this inspiring weekend of engaging speakers and conversations, delicious plant forward meals, and activities connecting you to the more-than-human creatures at Camp.

Aaron Sawatsky-Kingsley is a forester and a ISA certified arborist who created and is the director of Goshen, Indiana's Department of Environmental Resilience.

Cortney Colia, a member of the Ste. Marie Tribe of Chippewa Indians, founder of CC's Natural Art's LLC, and outdoor educator will present Lifeways of the Great Lakes Anishinabeg: native plants and voices.

Full weekend, commuter, and Saturday only options available.

269-476-9744

friedenswald.org